PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

“This is the true joy in life, being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; being a force of nature instead of a feverish selfish clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy. I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the whole community, and as long as I live it is my privilege to do for it whatever I can. I want to be thoroughly used up when I die, for the harder I work, the more I love. I rejoice in life for its own sake. Life is no ‘brief candle’ to me. It is sort of a splendid torch which I have a hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it over to future generations.” —George Bernard Shaw

As the school year winds down we are leaving with a sense of hope, hope that the light we see at the end of this very long tunnel, will be bright and will lead us out of the challenging days we have experienced these past 15 months.

I see the exhaustion in your faces, I hear the strain in your voices, and I know this has been the most challenging year to date. Whether you worked in a school, center, head office or from home, you all persevered, and in doing so you allowed the LBPSB community and the children and families we serve feel some sense of normalcy, not an easy feat but something to be proud of.

On behalf of the IASS Executive I want to thank each and every one of you for going above and beyond during this incredibly challenging year.

Allison Provost

NEGOTIATIONS

As mentioned previously we have agreed in Principle on many items that were negotiated, however we are still waiting on the Treasury Board to bring down their offer regarding salaries, Insurance contributions and other monetary items.

It has been a roller coaster year for negotiations, as on so many occasions we had a “blitz” which usually leads to an Agreement. The negotiations halted on several occasions, initially because of covid, other times it was due to negotiations being stalled at the Central Table.

We ask that you continue to check your LBPSB email until June 30 in case an offer comes in the next few days. I realize some of you will be on vacation, however the information and vote will be done via Zoom making attendance accessible to all.

Congratulations to our Support Staff Retirees!
