Executive Director Report:

- Taylor and Meg completed Safe Journey's Provider Monitoring and it went well. They will be completing OSF's the 20th.
- Party in the Park is Saturday, April 18th, and Meg will be representing for us there.
- June 13th we will be at the Boys and Girls Club Duck Race.
- Taylor will be attending the Statewide ROSC meeting on Tuesday the 21st with John Schneider.
- The MHB staff will be at the ROSC speaker on April 23rd from 1pm-4pm at the Eagle Theater.

Agency Comments:

Safe Journeys:

- Susan announced it has been a busy month. They have recently submitted six grants, including their two large DHS grants. They still four more grants to get done in the next month.
- They are working on on-boarding new staff. They have hired a Mental Health Therapist, Staff Attorney, Prevention Educator and a Part time shelter advocate.
- They will be having a Fundraiser on April 25th, 2-4pm.

Futures:

- Patty announced they are closely monitoring cash flow and will be initiating some changes to staff hours. The leadership team will be adjusting hours too.
- On a positive note, Futures just got done with their BQM (Bureau of Quality Management) survey. They had one siltation where they didn't have the consent or declination form for sex-ed for one of the clients, who happens to be in Florida all winter. It was easily fixable.
- Futures has some fundraising coming up. The Golf Outing is June 12th and then Denim and Diamonds on September 10th.
- Lastly, they had some anonymous donors step up and ask if they could do a matching $100,000 grant for Futures. There will be mailers going out asking for donations that the donors will match.

New Business:

- Re-Elect Debbie Studnicki
  - It was moved by Ed Legner, seconded by Pam Stone to approve the Re-Election of Debbie Studnicki. Motion carried.

Executive Session:

Adjourn:

It was moved by Gary Beier and seconded by Clark Reamer to adjourn. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Pam Stone, Secretary
