

Security

You must check your prejudices, your judgements, your old outdated learned behavior modes and leave your bossy adult at the gate.

Here is where you will also be screened for Covid, firearms, or/and or toxic thoughts and intentions.

By crossing this gate, you agree to comply with the rules and regulations as outlined in the mayor's speech.

This is also where you can buy your ticket if you haven't already.

If you have however, our groundbreaking, state-of-the-art scanning system will detect it, and you're free to come in.

If you haven't - this is an opportunity to do so, as well as make an additional donation to keep the city growing.

Bake sale

This is our fundraising station! This is where you can get refreshments and food items (that you've most likely consumed during the reception).

Variety of items are available - please talk to our Deputy Mayor about the menu details as well as our Mood Minister about our trusted uplifting desserts.

Venmo, PayPal, Credit Cards, cash, bitcoins, and gifts are excepted and expected.

Recreation Center 1, Saint Croix of Secret City

Our recreation center offers fun for all! Here you can relax, take a swim in our underwater lit swimming pool, while being carefully watched over by our lifeguard Cody. All ages and all species are welcome!

You may be asking: why a swimming pool in this cool autumn weather?

And the answer is - it's not autumn in Secret City. Secret city hosts all seasons at once.

You, the visitor, you the citizen can choose your own season.

Here, you can also enjoy a variety of cocktails from our bar, or you can experience the challenges of the climbing wall. Just make sure you don't attempt to climb the wall drunk! However, if you attempt so - just like Cody looking over the babies currently enjoying the cool water splashes at the swimming pool - three other lifeguards: Ryan, Ben and Mitch are keeping their eyes on you!

Do not feed the iguana!

You may press the blue button to make the cool blue lights blink in tempo with the music.

Race 1 - Horse Race and the Misfits

This is another area of exciting activity for the entire family. It is also known as 'The Misfits'. You see, back in the day, there was a category of creatures commonly referred to as the misfits. The misfits were typically beings who, for one reason or another, did not quite fit within a certain category. Therefore, they would be disqualified, ridiculed, rejected, or in other ways made to feel less valid and unwelcomed.

That category does not exist in Secret City. Here we see our first race, the horses Whisper, Jasmine and Peace at the start line. But look more carefully and you will see a unicorn facing the other direction ready to compete and is allowed to, even though he's not quite 'fitting in'.

Inspired by this wonderful scene, many other animals have lined up to participate in the second or third race, realizing that we are all equal, we all have a chance.

And look at the audience observing this race: the family of ducks, with their own misfit headless Swan, the family of ladybugs which initially was a family of seven (but two small ladybug daughters ran off with other Secret City citizens). You can see one of them in the traffic station; she has un-joined the family and is now riding in the back of a car with a spider!

And that's OK.

Don't forget to place your bets here; talk to the grasshopper at the betting table. But hurry - this is the final call as the race is about to begin!

Ducks vs. Geese

The Ducks or The Geese? Each team led by a human in a boat whose purpose is to make sure no one falls into the swamp (and/or help them out if they do).

Funny, you might think - both Geese and Ducks have wings and feet optimized for swimming! Yet, the humans are watching over them? How ironic! Shouldn't it be the opposite? Are these humans, one called Ducks and another Geese, competing while The Ducks or The Geese are watching over them?

Possibly! Remember: there are always two (or more) sides to any story!

Recreation Center 2 - Cat People

Who says that cats hate water? It's a myth. In Secret City cats LOVE water.

In fact, all these cats were auditioning to perform on one of the piano stages tonight. Unfortunately, none of these won, so they've decided to take the rest of the evening off.

Here they relax while their relative Ruby The Cat, and their baby, enjoy the spotlight later this evening.

Watch these three cats enjoying their bath, while their guardian cat is providing a cool breeze with a fan.

Go ahead! Try fanning them yourself.

Hip-Hop stage - Justin and Justin

Once upon a time Hip-Hop was believed to be a product of a very specific, distinct segment of our society. Not anymore!

Watch Justin and Justin perform while accompanied by the back-up singer ladies from ancient Egypt, the bunny rabbits, together with the chicks, who in fact are the children of the Chicken - The Sound Engineer for the show. He has arrived on his Vespa, and is accompanied by Panda The Assistant Sound Engineer who came on a Goat.

And what a diverse audience as well! Oh, such fun. The dragon (twin brother to dragon the pianist, who'll perform tonight), the humans, the bugs, the fish! Everyone loves J&J!!! And how about the light show underneath the stage, which helps everyone get even more engaged in joining in the singing and dancing.

If you can't find a spot in the crowded sold-out auditorium, you can follow along on the video screen floating above them.

Opera stage 1 – Traditional

In this opera, we hear a female voice embodying all the female voices on the globe, secret and/or otherwise. She is (they are) reminiscing about love, but unlike what you might expect in a traditional opera (where the female character is expected to sacrifice herself for that said love), here love is celebrated, lived, and lived for.

Opera 2 – Contemporary

In this performance the main character Adam is presented by a countertenor. His voice, much like a woman's and drunk with passion, sings about his longing for the one he cannot have. The alligator car which has brought him onto this stage through the big and otherwise un-crossable sea is parked out back. He's waiting patiently for his master's lament to conclude - hoping to bring him home, alive and relieved. Adam has two options: release his sorrows into the sea, allowing the waves to disperse it into the sea-foam or diving into the dangerous surf and that way finding solace.

In front of him on stage are two barrels of gasoline: might there be a third version of the ending?

VR Cinema

Grab your VR headsets and get lost in the other reality. This is a secret city within Secret City. Be mindful of your surroundings as well as your inner depths. What is virtual and what is real? And, are the virtual screens just the mirrors? Dive in and find out.

Harp Fountain

After walking around Secret City all evening, you might want to sit down by a magical fountain and enjoy some soothing harp sounds. And if you'd like to join in the musicianship, you may buy or rent a harp from our lovely Arielle! Or Mia! Or both!

Peep Show

It's time for a little lovemaking. Oh, we can tell you what's inside, but wouldn't rather see for yourself? Scan the QR code and Venmo a decent amount to support our sex workers... watch to your hearts content! Be careful though, there are cameras making sure that you're not abusing or addressing our sex workers inappropriately. If you'd like, rub the joystick - you will know that you're doing it right if it lights up in bright pink light. If you experience a little bit of a lowest back pain from over stimulation, our nurse is right there with the proper medication.

House of Horrors

If it's dark enough, you just may see a ghostly image coming out of the magic horror ball. Talk to our Ambassador or a Deputy Mayor to see if that can be arranged tonight.

Wellness Center- Astro/Bik Koji Sedi

Today we have officially entered a Scorpio season. What is your astrological sign? What is your ascendant? Did you know that if you have your birth chart, we can give you your unique specific frequency! The Astro chart shown here is the Taurus/Sagittarius combo, the combination of our Mayor's astrological signature. Commission your frequency today. Use it to meditate or simply bath in a soothing sound in which to fall asleep at night.

Press the third eye for a special effect.
Press the brass to release the frequency.

Wellness Center - Magic Lamp

The magic lamp plays music, exudes mist and makes your wish come true. To grant your wish, ask Mei (from Totoro) to turn the handle, or if she's too tired (she's been doing it all day!) grab the handle extender from the side of the wooden box and turn it yourself!

TAP Station

Two guitars, two voices, two people, two sets of vast imagination birthed this duo. Tonight's show is sold out, but leaked information has revealed that there will be a full concert of their music, presented by Secret City, later this year. Stay tuned!

The bubble family

An astronaut stuck at the center of the earth with a giant bat floating over his head that wants to give him Covid! But the astronaut is in the bubble-earth and he can't be touched!

Satellite bubbles show a family enjoying an afternoon drink, as well as a relaxing beach scene enjoyed by another bubble person.

Grab an empty bubble and put your wish inside (ask our Deputy Mayor to give you a piece of magic paper). You can either write it down or just think if it, then hang your bubble in the designated area.

Leave it out there to roam the universe and remember Secret City when your wish comes true!

Press on the bet for sound.

Juilliard at Night

And let's finally have a decent chamber music concert, this is Juilliard by Night y'all! The musicians have their feet stuck in mud, a thick mud that promises to light up with millions of shiny stars. They keep playing, night after night! After a while they can't even move, their feet are securely planted in the mud. Maybe the light never comes, the stars never light up, the stardom never arrives. Then what? Is the simple act of creating and sharing music enough? Will hope and inspiration be stronger if the participants pay more?

Piano station 1

The Dragon Pianist will introduce himself by playing. He's challenging Kathleen Supové tonight!

Piano station 2

The Bubble Pianist will introduce himself by playing. He's challenging Milica Paranosic tonight!

Piano station 3

The Cat Pianist will introduce themselves by playing. They are challenging Rubens Salles tonight!
