

Associate Pastor of the
Evangelical Spiritual Church in Cicero, IL, Medium, Healer, Spiritual Teacher and Leader

Reverend Fischer is a dedicated and compassionate spiritual leader with extensive experience in ministry, service work, and education. She currently serves as Associate Minister for the Evangelical Spiritual Church, where she has provided guidance and support to the congregation for over 25 years. Throughout her tenure, she has also held key leadership roles, including Treasurer and Secretary, demonstrating her commitment to the church's growth and stewardship.

With a deep devotion to service, Rev. Fischer works closely with individuals facing unique afflictions, offering comfort through prayer, spiritual readings, and healings. She regularly visits nursing homes and care facilities, providing communion and spiritual care to those who seek solace and connection.

Her mediumship is widely recognized and respected within the spiritual community and by the organizations she serves. As a long-standing member of the Independent Spiritualist Association. Holding the board position as Clerk, she plays a vital role in guiding the organization's mission. Additionally, she is the co-founder of the United Spiritual Council of Nations, where she assists in shaping education curricula and administering testing for Spiritual Leadership and co-educates development classes of Mediumship, Healing, Associate Minister, and Minister for certification.

She is a reverend, an educator, mentor and medium. Rev. Fischer provides a vision in teaching mediumship and healing classes, helping others cultivate their spiritual gifts and Spiritual understanding. Her contributions to Spiritual education and community outreach continue to uplift and inspire all those she serves.

Having a leader who is both present and understanding can be a profound source of comfort, especially for those facing challenges. Being able to peer into the Spiritual world helps her to show a more expanded look of things for others. People like her create a ripple effect, inspiring others to be kinder, more generous.

It's incredible how someone like Rev. Donna can bring such a sense of peace and wisdom to others. Having the ability to provide a deeper perspective, one that expands beyond just the physical world—can truly be transformative for those who seek guidance. Her influence seems to go beyond just words; she creates an atmosphere where people feel safe, understood, and inspired to grow. That kind of leadership is rare and invaluable.
