'SEVEN'

By: Langston H.

THE MOST IMPRESSIVE NOTABLES FOR "7" HAS BEEN HIS LEADERSHIP AND PHYSICALITY. COMING INTO A COMPLEX VARSITY SYSTEM AND DIRECTING TRAFFIC CAN BE AND HAS BEEN DONE BY FEW. THE OTHER SCARE IS THE PHYSICALITY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN A 14 YEAR OLD FRESHMAN AND AN 18 OLD SENIOR — NOT IN THIS CASE. ARAF JR. HAS BEEN PUTTING HIS BODY ON EVERY TACKLE AND SHOWING HE BELONGS PHYSICALLY AT THAT LEVEL ALREADY.

PREVIOUSLY FOCUSING MOST OF HIS EFFORTS ON WIDEOUT PLAY, THE JOURNEY FOR "7" THIS SEASON HAS BEEN A NEW ENDEAVOR. WITH 13 TACKLES, 1 INT AND A FORCED FUMBLE IN JUST 3 VARSITY GAMES, ARAF EVANS JR. HAS MADE HIS PRESENCE KNOWN EARLY IN THE METRO. HIS MOST NOTABLE PERFORMANCE WAS WEEK 4 IN THE SHOWDOWN BETWEEN BELLEVUE WEST VS. WESTSIDE. WITH WHITFIELD GOING DOWN EARLY AND JENKINS PLAYING OLB FOR THE TBIRDS, "7" PLAYED 3 FULL QUARTERS IN HIS FIRST EVER VARSITY GAME — DAWG!

"Araf Evans Jr. has made his presence known early in the Metro."

WATCH OUT FOR AN INCREASED ROLE FOR THIS FRESHMAN AS THE SEASON APPROACHES ITS FINALITY. THE T-BIRDS ARE HUNGRY TO MAKE A RUN AND AVENGE THEIR IN-SEASON LOSSES TO GRETN, WESTSIDE AND KEARNEY. THIS IS A SPECIAL CLASS IN THE STATE OF NEBRASKA AS THE OFFERS HAVE ALREADY STARTED COMING FOR THESE TALENTED WIDEOUTS. IT'S JUST A MATTER OF TIME BEFORE THIS BALLER STARTS BRINGING IN HIS OWN THERE'S NO QUESTION THESE ARE IRREPLACEABLE REPS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL — A RARITY AND CERTAIN TO LIFT HIS CEILING.

PREP REDZONE

Editor -Scout - Analysis

Photograph by Stephanie Anne

If you stay on top of high school football in Nebraska, you know the name Oscar Galindo. His coverage of games on Thursday and Friday nights for Prep Red Zone is comprehensive! Growing up in Lexington, NE (born in Mexico), Oscar made his way east to Omaha after graduating from UNK with a degree in psychology. Originally starting in the banking industry, Oscar was looking for something more. He took his love for the game of football and put that knowledge to work by starting at Prep Red Zone.

Oscar has a huge task at the beginning of each season by trying to learn all of the athletes. He covers Class A-D6, that amounts to hundreds, if not thousands of athletes. He works hard to promote all the kids, but emphasizes, you can only promote what's out there. That is why it is important for kids to have Twitter, Hudl, etc. That is how coaches/scouts will find you. Once you get them down, you have to figure out who is priority to get to and cover at what week. Taking it week by week is what Oscar finds easiest to manage.

Confidence is the strongest attribute Oscar believes an athlete should have. "You may not be the strongest or fastest, but if you are confident in your ability, that will show on and off the field. The mental part of the game is the last frontier you have to conquer to get to that next level. Take the losses/bad plays to the chin, and always remember you can learn and grow from this." Oscar sees NIL as an opportunity for the athletes to make this bigger than themselves. He credits Lincoln East athletes Malachi Coleman and Sam Cappos for partnering with causes. Coleman with the local foster care system (www.flylikechi.com) and Cappos with suicide prevention (www.seesamthrow.com).

He says, "It is really cool to see, especially at a young age. No matter what they do in life, they will probably do something great."

"The athlete that surprised Oscar the most this year is Donovan Whitfield of Bellevue West."

2022 started off and Oscar had huge goals. He wanted to see the growth in all the kids and plaster these kids' highlights everywhere. He wants to put the kids on as many platforms as possible; Instagram, Twitter, YouTube. One way Oscar is accomplishing this goal is through his new Podcast, "The Official Visit". The idea came from other Podcasts who feature athletes. Being a psychology major, Oscar believes the Podcast brings in a different level of the game. You get to talk life with the athletes, and get to know their personality, not just see their highlight film out there. He loves to ask kids things he believes coaches would like to know about them. Things like their work ethic, drive, etc. He is hoping to bring in not only local high school athletes, but current/former collegiate players in the offseason as well. The most rewarding part of his job is to see these kids getting the offers and making their commitments.

The athlete that surprised Oscar the most this year is Donovan Whitfield of Bellevue West. He released his rankings and didn't have him highly rated, some may say Donovan took that as motivation because he has exploded this fall.

The most surprising team this year for Oscar is between Kearney or Elkhorn North. Kearney is looking good, while they seem young on paper. Where Elkhorn North is a VERY young program and group of kids, but to see their growth and success is inspiring.

Braelin Morton

ONE THING YOU CAN GUARANTEE WHEN BRAELIN MORTON IS ON THE FIELD IS THAT PLAYS WILL BE MADE SO — BUCKLE UP! BRAELIN REALLY CAME ONTO THE SCENE AND ESTABLISHED HIS LEGACY DURING OUR TOURNAMENT IN CEDAR FALLS, IA. WE WERE STRUGGLING TO MAKE PLAYS THAT DAY AND ALL IT TOOK WAS A NASTY ONE-HANDED PICK TO TURN THE ENTIRE DAY AROUND. BRAELIN IS A DUDE YOU NEED ON YOUR TEAM, ESPECIALLY WHEN TIMES ARE TOUGH.

BRAELIN HAS BEEN ALL OVER THE FIELD FOR THE MONARCHS THIS SEASON. AVERAGING 7 YDS/CARRY AND TOTALING OVER 30 TACKLES THIS SEASON, HE'S BEEN A PLAYMAKER ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL THIS SEASON. COLLEGES ARE GETTING A KID THAT LOVES FOOTBALL AND CAN CHANGE THE GAME IN A SINGLE PLAY.

PLAYING A FAMILIAR OPPONENT, THIS SENIOR LOOKS TO LEAD HIS SQUAD TO AN UPSET THIS FRIDAY NIGHT AGAINST WESTSIDE. NEBRASKA CLASS A FOOTBALL HAS SEEN PLENTY OF TURMOIL THIS SEASON AND IT APPEARS AS ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN IN THESE NEXT 4 WEEKS. MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR TIME YOUNG KING — BEST OF LUCK TO YOU AND YOUR SQUAD THIS POST-SEASON!

Jordan Barrientos set the tone early in the game. The junior took the opening kick 90 yards for a score. That was Barrientos' first of three touchdowns, and like many of the other Monarch starters, the junior watched the second half from the sideline with the outcome in hand.

SZN 4 was Kyler's rookie season with NELITE but by the last tournament, you wouldn't have guessed that. He fits in the NELITE culture like he is one of the OGs. The Class of 2030 athlete plays Wideout, QB & safety for the Jr Titans. He has excelled this fall tackle season and definitely is one to watch. Kyler loves route running and scoring TDs. He participated in the Keith Williams Wideout Camp this summer which allowed him to get a plethora of knowledge from top PROFESSIONALS.

KYLER '30 MC SHANE

Young Baller Spotlight

His love for Wideouts started with Emmanuel Sanders from Denver and JD Spielman from Nebraska (hence the #10 jersey). Current NFL players he looks up to the most are Justin Jefferson, Ja'maree Chase and Stefon Diggs. Being a straight A student and multi-sport athlete is tough, especially for a 5th grader, but Kyler not only does it, but excels. The end goal is the NFL with Kyler, but he understands he has to put in the work. This Young Baller is not a stranger when it comes to that. You can catch him practicing routes outside of practice time and is one that has really proven himself time and time again by his commitment in the offseason to the game. Kyler McShane--- Remember that, he will be one 2030 you won't miss on Friday nights in a few years. Keep being great Kyler!

JOHN HEUER

The man behind the camera

We can guarantee most of y'all have seen the GOAT's work, but here's your chance to get to know the man behind the camera of Omaha's best highlights. A Nebraska native, John has spent most of his life in the Cornhusker state. John most recently moved back to the Omaha area in 2017 taking a job with NIKE. It was relationship with former Husker Brandon Kinnie that really gave this journey it's beginning.

No one said it would be easy

Most of John's initial work was actually unpaid photography sessions with friends and colleagues. It wasn't until that relationship with Brandon shooting training session videos for Alliance Sports Training that sports videography began taking the lens in his life. These freelance highlight videos began to gain organic, local traction. John soon found himself working with Coach PJ Smith at Concordia doing highlights for college games - momentum was building.

You cant cheat the grind

Although there were some signs of potential success, video shooting and editing is an often long and thankless task. In 2020, John began working with local high school basketball talent. He's always felt that the talent of Nebraska, and Omaha specifically, has always been overlooked and under recruited. John's mission has always been to make sure those he's shooting remain the main thing.

John is the definition of a Trailblazer!

Recently John established a large footprint on social media in the Omaha landscape, his most popular video getting 491k views and 40k likes. His success creating highlights both on court and field has gained recent traction. John most recently signed a full-time contract with NXTPRO where he will be creating highlights for some of the best high school basketball players in the country. John is the DEFINITION of a TRAILBLAZER, press on!

Yano Jones '28

spotlight

This Class of 2028 athlete has a list of accolades, and he is only just getting started! Yano Jones helped lead his former tackle team to the Championship, FBU All Star, Game MVP at a 7on7 tournament, and lead the Jr Titans 7on7 to undefeated season as QB.

That is just on the field. Off the field, he has straight As, is a peer mentor and is on the student council.

Yano is a silent leader; his work shows what he can do! His end goal is the NFL, and to be the best player he can be at the game that he loves. Yano is a very versatile player, whether it be at Wideout or QB, Yano can plug in anywhere and use his quick speed to get his team where they need to be. Watch out for this one in the next couple of years, his stock will only continue to rise!
