

Tracey Rose - Celebrant

Introduction and Announcements ~ examples

We gather here today in the presence of love and joy to celebrate the union of [Partner 1] and [Partner 2]. Today, we witness the coming together of two souls, two hearts, and two families, as they embark on the beautiful journey of marriage.

As we stand in this beautiful space, let us reflect on the significance of the commitment these two individuals are about to make. Marriage is not just a union of two people; it is a merging of dreams, hopes, and aspirations. It is a promise to stand together through thick and thin, to support and uplift each other, and to find strength in love when faced with life's uncertainties.

As we embark on the joyous journey of our wedding day, we kindly ask for your presence to be truly in the moment. To ensure an intimate and distraction-free celebration, we are excited to announce that our wedding will be an unplugged ceremony.

We invite you to be fully present with us as we exchange vows and share this special moment. Please, turn off all electronic devices and stow them away during the ceremony.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in creating a cherished and focused atmosphere on this meaningful day.
