7B Golden Retrievers: Stud Service Agreement

Both the Male and Female Owner will verify ownership of their respective dogs, via Bill of Sale, current registration, pedigree, ect. (Requirements: list dog, and owner on the same document verifying full ownership) as well as complete contract, and fulfill payment, BEFORE Breeding.

The Female owner agrees that her female dog does not have any symptoms of any disease or carry any contagious disease or sickness before breeding their dog to Male Owner's Stud. Should the female dog infect the male dog with any disease or sickness, the Female Owner is responsible for the financial cost of vet medical attention to the male dog.

Should issues arise with the breeding and the Female dog not conceive a successful litter, (A successful litter is defined as 1 or more pups born alive and living at least 7 days) the Female will be bred during her next heat cycle, provided that the Male Owner is notified within 70 days of the breeding that there is failure to whelp. If the second attempt fails, the female owner is refunded all costs pertaining to breeding, except non-refundable deposit.

The Female Owner is not responsible for any damages their animal causes to the facility or persons at the facility.

The Female owner is responsible for the registration of the litter and all expenses involved in said process. However, the Male owner may hold registration acceptance until they are paid in full for the stud service.This document is legal and binding.
