“As downtown Gallup’s flagship gallery, ART123 is a creative community hub, connecting artists, residents, ideas, and perspectives,” says Rose Eason, Executive Director of GallupARTS. “We are excited to be celebrating 10 years of creating space for local art to flourish.”

“I have been privileged to watch ART123 grow and develop into a community institution,” says featured artist Tine Hays. “The gallery serves a vital role in supporting and showcasing our local talent.”

“This gallery gives something to the community,” says featured artist Scott Williams. “That’s what I love about this space: it gives artists of all ages a chance and a voice.”

“Working with GallupARTS and ART123 has been a great way to connect with the community,” says featured artist Nick Brokeshoulder.

“ART123 Gallery has been key in showcasing art and artists that deliver important insights about the people in the surrounding communities, their history, their culture, their lives, and their views,” says featured artist Nalmerthan Pablo.

The Show Opening will be on Saturday, May 10, from 7 – 9pm.
ART123 Gallery is open Tuesdays to Fridays from 2 – 6pm, and Saturdays from 12 – 6pm.
