

Gallup Public Radio (GPR)
Community Advisory Board (CAB) Meeting Minutes
December 9, 2021

Meeting convened, via Zoom, at 6:15pm.

Attending: Bill Bright, Toni Neff, Millie Dunning, Emma Farley, and Rachel Kaub.

- December 9, 2021 agenda and May 13 minutes approved by consensus
 - Old and New Business
- Former CAB member Carolyn Milligan is back in her Gallup home. Cognitive issues may prevent certain activities, but her son reports that she is doing okay, with his help.
- STL system ordered. KGLP has FCC applications for possible repeater stations that could be built in the Zuni / Ramah, NM area, and West of Window Rock, Arizona.
- Emma Farley's first annual performance review went well, with her job title now "Operations Manager".
- KGLP's Fall / Winter fundraising campaign began in mid-October, set to continue into Feb. '22. The "Silent Campaign" model is still working well, after eight years.
- The next Board Election closes nominations on November 30, with the election tallies due at 7pm on January 10, 2022, at the annual members meeting, with the board ballot consisting of Susan Macias, Matthew Mingus, and Terrence Sloan.
- Bill Bright noted that the hybrid model (In-Person with virtual options, will, or should, remain the norm for most public meetings, particularly in the Round House and other governmental institutions. He also noted the importance of KGLP's coverage of public events and issues, most recently with RMCH administration, unionizing physicians, other staff, and community members. Rachel mentioned the upcoming coverage of the December 11 organizing committee Town Hall and Bernie Dotson's efforts to record interviews with current and previous RMCH admin executives and staff.

Meeting concluded, by consensus, at 6:36pm.
