

Do you know about suspensions, expulsions or arrests in Gallup-McKinley public schools?

Journalists would like to hear your experiences for an important news story.

New Mexico In Depth and ProPublica, two newsrooms with a track record of covering issues affecting Native American communities, are teaming up to examine what’s really happening in New Mexico classrooms. We’re looking at school suspensions, expulsions, arrests and referrals to law enforcement, especially in Gallup-McKinley County Schools.
