UNMG Zollinger Library Events for October 2023

Join Zollinger Library for a special Z-Talk presentation by Skylar Stevens at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11. Vaccines have become a controversial topic recently, but did you know they date all the way back to the 1100s? Did you know that the only two diseases to ever be eradicated were eradicated because of vaccines? Did you know that a single pear contains 50 times more formaldehyde than in a single dose of a vaccine? Join us as we talk about the history of vaccines and how they work and bust some of the many myths about these life-saving molecules. For questions, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu.

Friday the 13th

Enjoy Friday the 13th in the library with a spooky documentary and a display of urban legends. Watch “Going to Pieces,” a documentary about the many slasher films over the years. There will also be a display with books and more, showing the many urban legends and superstitions people have. For questions, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu

Pokémon Go Fright Night Battles

Join us at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, for a special Zollinger Pokémon Go tournament. Trainers from all over campus and all over Gallup are invited to join this battle royale. Pick your best team of 6 and battle to win the Fright Night Cup. Trainers can also get together to trade and raid. Snacks will be provided. For questions, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu.

Tamsin Silver Author Talk

Join us for a special guest author from New Mexico, Tamsin Silver on Friday, Oct. 27 at 1 p.m. The library will host this local in the library atrium. Tamsin writes urban fantasy, young adult fantasy, and historical fantasy. Some of her works include, The Curse of Billy the Kid, Metamorphosis, and Living Dead Girl. Tamsin will also have books available for purchase. This is part of our Z-Talks series. For questions, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu.
Zollinger Halloween Frightfest

On Tuesday, Oct. 31, celebrate Halloween at the library. Beginning at 9 a.m. Zollinger will have a full day of activities and fun. Wear your costumes and trick-or-treat throughout the day.

- Make Your Own Scare
  Come to the Atrium and make your own scary decoration. Supplies and patterns will be available to conjure up your own scare.

- Escape the Library Virtual Escape Room
  Try out our frightful digital escape room. You’re trapped in the library and something is lurking in the shadows. Can you solve the riddles and find a way out in time?

- Real Life Stories of the Paranormal
  At 4 p.m., join us for a roundtable discussion of paranormal stories by people who experienced them. Have a story to share, join in and tell your tale.

- Campus Ghost Hunt!
  At 6:30 p.m., gather in the library and prepare for a real ghost hunt. We’ll have ghost hunting equipment available as we walk the campus in search of the paranormal. This is not a haunted attraction; it is a real ghost hunt with real equipment. Join us if you dare.

For questions on any of the activities, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu

Join Zollinger Library for our October Film Series at 4 p.m. every Thursday. This month we are diving into the horror genre and digging up some scares. Check out these frightful films. The film screenings are free and open to all students and staff as well as the community. Popcorn is available on a first-come, first-served basis. For questions, please call 505-863-7531 or email markos@unm.edu.
