Library Week

April 6 to 10 is National Library Week. Celebrate the library with three mini events. First, join us on Monday to celebrate your right to read by checking out a book and having a “Read-in” in the library commons from 12pm to 1pm. On Tuesday, sign our thank you card to celebrate the library workers that provide quality service each day. You can also leave an encouraging note in support of your library. Finally, on Wednesday, join us for a documentary film called “Libraries” in the atrium at 5pm. Snacks will be provided.

Breakfast Celebration

In honor of Library Week, Zollinger Library is providing a Lucky Charms breakfast extravaganza Thursday and Friday, April 9 and 10 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Join us for a free Lucky Charms Cereal Bar in the conference room. Enjoy some music and coloring sheets while you eat. First come, first served. Don’t miss out!

Science Class Presentation

Join us April 23 at 4 p.m. for a special presentation by the science students of Dr. Arunachalam Muthaiyan from UNM-G. Their presentation will showcase their work for the Undergraduate Research Conference in Albuquerque. Witness the research, experiments, and hard work these students put into making their presentation a success.

Spring Film Noir

During the month of April, Zollinger Library celebrates Film Noir with four film screenings. Join us at 4 p.m. on select Thursdays in the conference room for these films about mystery, suspense, and the unknown. Popcorn will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis.
