

QUOTES FROM OUR CO-OP TEACHERS...

"...love the journey and lifestyle of home education; have years of teaching experience in the coursework."

"...homeschool graduate and a college graduate with a B.A. in English and a Minor in Music. proficient in American Sign Language (ASL); tutor in English, teach piano, published two children's books and a young adult novel."

"...have a degree in Rehabilitation Counseling; a veteran home school mom of twenty years; participated in many aspects of home school - Team Leader, teaching journalism and psychology."

"...earned a Bachelor's Degree, 23 years experience in education including teaching high school mathematics, Guidance Director and Principal; served on staff at Oak Park Church for the past 28 years."

"...have a B.S. in biology/chemistry and have taught science in the classroom for 10 years in public and private schools; have a passion for both science and teenagers and strive to make connections with the young people I teach."

"...director of a children's ministry for over twenty years and served in every capacity of working with children; have taught ACT English prep, writing, science in homeschool co-op classes, in public, and in private schools; have Masters of Education degree, love children, teaching, and learning!"

"...home school veteran of over twenty years, recently graduated my fourth child, and my fifth has two more years to go. All children have thus far gone on to college, to become editor/writer/marketer/office supervisor; an Explosive Ordinance Disposal Tech for the Army, a senior in Chemical Engineering at Auburn University, and a freshman at Coastal Alabama; have a B.A. in Social Studies/History and has led many co-op classes - elementary science and social studies, middle school literature and composition and high school history, government and philosophy; truly enjoy interacting with students and finding ways to make classroom subjects that might be boring to some, become fun and interesting."

"...B.A. degree in Communication Arts concentrated in Public Relations and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with a minor in English; homeschooled for a total of 13 years; have found several outlets in which to use my degree within the world of homeschooling - mentoring the marketing presentation team as part of the homeschool BEST robotics team for 5 years, teaching the art of communication to young people."

"...a member of the Professional Photographers of America, have been in the photography business for over 30 years; began teaching photography in the homeschool setting fifteen years ago; HCA school photographer; head up the school yearbook for the school."