

Privacy Policy

(Reviewed on 1st of September 2026)

I will collect the following information to enable me to fulfil my role as tutor:

*Your contact details (email address, home address (if you are happy to share) and telephone number);

*Your child's name and school year, for my internal record-keeping;

*Possibly - and with your permission: educational information about your child to help me plan and assess with maximum effectiveness.

This applies to all students & parents/carers, regardless of your country of residence.

This information will not be shared with third parties.

When the tutoring service has stopped, I will remove / delete all information I have relating to your child. I will keep your email address and telephone number for my records unless you instruct me to the contrary.

Any resources or exercises provided remain the intellectual property of MRW Maths and must not be shared or copied without my explicit consent.
