On 01/08/21 at approximately 12:45 PM, Franklin County Sheriff's Deputies took a complaint of an aggravated domestic assault. When interviewing the victim, Deputies learned that the abuse had been taking place over the last month. In the latest incident, Joshua Powers is alleged to have caused multiple injuries to the victim including threatening to kill her if she went to the police. Powers was located in the town of Georgia later in the day, arrested, and charged with the crimes of aggravated domestic assault, interference with access to emergency services, unlawful restraint in the first degree and criminal threatening.

Powers was transported to the Sheriff's Office where he was processed before being lodged at the Northwest Regional Correctional Facility where he is being held without bail. It was also learned that Powers was on probation for a previous domestic assault conviction.
