

FRANKLIN COUNTY SHERIFF

CASE # 21FRC007602
DATE(s)/Time(s): 12/30/21 7:02 AM
Incident Type/Charge(s): 1st Degree Aggravated Domestic Assault
Violation of Conditions of Release
Interference with Access to Emergency Services
Location of Incident: Kellogg Road, St. Albans Town
Accused: Travis Wells
Age: 25
Address: Kellogg Road, St. Albans Town

Summary of Incident:

On 12/30/21 at approximately 7:02 AM, a “walk-in” complaint was received at the Franklin County Sheriff’s Office. The nature of the complaint alleged that Travis Wells had assaulted the victim during the early morning hours at a residence on Kellogg Road in the Town of St. Albans. The alleged assaults consisted of Wells punching and strangling the victim multiple times causing injury to the victim. Additionally, Wells is alleged to have broken the victim’s phone so that emergency services could not be contacted. Wells is currently on conditions of release related to a previous charge of domestic assault that is still pending with the court.

Wells was located at his residence and taken into custody by Sheriff’s Deputies. Wells was transported to the Franklin County Sheriff’s Office for processing and phone court arraignment.

Wells was subsequently lodged at the Northwest Regional Correctional Facility and held without bail.