Good evening Brownwood Baptist Community

I hope you are having a good week so far. I have several things for you tonight.

- 1. If you are interested in receiving an Open Windows devotional book please let me know by April 5th.
- 2. Our association has canceled Holy Week services this year. This was a tough decision to make for our leaders, but we want to make sure we do our part in taking care of your physical well-being.
- 3. Please pray for God to guide me with conviction as to what He wants me to do in ministering to you.

I am ready to be with you again. I am ready to stand in the pulpit and proclaim the gospel again. I am ready to pray with you again. There are many things that I look forward to when we can come back together.

I am praying for each of you and I ask that you be praying for one another. God is in control, we are not. In Psalm 35:3 David in the midst of adversity said to God "Say to my soul, I am your salvation."

There is great depth here. David did not want to hear the words "I am your salvation"; he wanted to feel it in his soul.

We should each desire for God to speak to our souls in the midst of adversity.

David finished this Psalm with these words, we must echo them now as well. "And my tongue shall speak of Your righteousness, and of Your praise all the day long."
