Revelation 17 - Come Out of Babylon and Follow the Lamb

"These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings..."

Revelation 17:14 KJV

My beloved child,

Do not be deceived by appearances. Revelation 17 shows a woman clothed in purple and scarlet, holding a golden cup, yet full of abominations. I am showing you that not everything that looks beautiful is pure, and not everything that glitters carries truth.

Babylon represents confusion, corruption, and spiritual unfaithfulness. The beast represents worldly power opposed to My ways. The waters speak of peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. The seven heads and ten horns reveal that evil works through kingdoms, rulers, and systems that resist My authority.

But do not fear. The Lamb will overcome. Though darkness gathers power for a season, it cannot stand against My Son. I am calling you to wisdom, discernment, and separation from all that is false. Do not drink from the cup of compromise. Do not be moved by wealth, popularity, or outward religion without truth.

Stay close to My Word. Keep your heart clean before Me. Stand with the saints. Follow the Lamb wherever He leads. When the world grows more confusing, remember that truth still stands, holiness still matters, and My kingdom cannot be shaken.

Come out of confusion. Come out of compromise. Walk in truth, humility, and obedience. I am with you, and I will keep those who remain faithful.

With everlasting love,
Your Heavenly Father

Revelation 17 - Reflection

◆ Reflection Questions

1. What does the woman represent in Revelation 17?
2. What was written on her forehead?
3. What do the waters represent?
4. What do the seven heads and ten horns symbolize?
5. Why is the woman called "Babylon the Great"?
6. What does Revelation 17:14 teach about the Lamb?

Remember: Do not be deceived by outward beauty, power, or false worship. Stay faithful to the Lamb, walk in truth, and come out of spiritual confusion.

Prayer

Father God, thank You for warning us through Revelation 17. Give us wisdom to understand, discernment to recognize what is false, and courage to remain faithful to the Lamb. Keep us from confusion, compromise, and spiritual deception. Help us to walk in holiness, stand with truth, and follow Jesus no matter what the world does. Strengthen us to overcome through the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony. We choose to stay close to Your Word and live for You. In Jesus' name, Amen.
