

Tracy J Moss describes herself as “an entrepreneur from day one.” She is a graduate of Hampton University as well as The University of Wisconsin-Madison where she earned her MBA in Marketing.

She is a 35+ year veteran in the salon industry and is currently a licensed master cosmetologist and owner of M. Anthony Salon located just outside of Atlanta in Sandy Springs, GA. She and her husband own and manage several rental properties in Atlanta and Hampton, VA.

Tracy J Moss also established a Black History Camp for K-5th grade students and later set up the Go Beyond Your Knowledge Fund (GoByk), Inc., a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. The Black History Camp became the flagship program of the non-profit. 24 years later, the camp continues, and services have expanded to include Black History program planning and implementation for other organizations.

She is an accomplished businesswoman in the Atlanta Community who lends her 35+ years of entrepreneurial knowledge, financial protocols, and creativity to support organizations such as Jack and Jill of America, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, The National Hampton Alumni Association-Atlanta Chapter, and the non-profit boards of Go Beyond Your Knowledge, Mikayla Moving Autism and EmotionThink.

She is married to H. “Skip” Watson, and they have four children.

Tracy J Moss is ultimately a healthy hair coach, veteran licensed cosmetologist and gut health advocate and can be found on Facebook, Instagram and TikTok. Like and follow her for daily hair tips and inspiration.