

5 Books from Author Solutions Imprints Recognized in Foreword Reviews' 18th Annual INDIEFAB Book of the Year Awards

Winning book and honorable mentions include books from iUniverse, AuthorHouse and Xlibris.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind (PRWEB) July 18, 2016 -- Author Solutions, LLC, the world leader in supported self-publishing services, announced Monday that books from three different imprints have received honors in the Foreword Reviews' 18th annual INDIEFAB Book of the Year Awards.

The iUniverse title winning a silver medal in the category of Multicultural Fiction is "A Banner of Love" by Jo Valentine.

Four other titles received honorable mentions in the competition:

- "Moving Beyond Duality" by Dorothy Riddle in the category of Body, Mind & Spirit and published by iUniverse

- "Dance — An Illustrated History" by Helene Andreu in the category of Performing Arts & Music and published by iUniverse

- "Crash Lane News" by CrashLaneNews.com in the category of Travel and published by AuthorHouse

- "Sighing Woman Tea" by Mark Seiler in the category of General and published by Xlibris

Foreword's Book of the Year Awards honor the best books from independent publishers judged by a select group of librarians and booksellers from around the country.
