

SLOW PRESENTATION

From a holstered or ready position, fully present your pistol. Bring it back to about four inches from the final position (close to your chest). Slowly press the pistol to full extension while taking up the slack on the trigger. Release the shot as you reach full extension. Rack the slide if necessary and repeat.