Welcome

Both sun and storm are befalling the UK at the moment, so it is with the weather and so it is with life. It is a pleasure to welcome you to this bulletin.

Post Investiture

We were seen in the media as part of the Whit Walk in Manchester and many people were spoken to on the day, our Order is starting to gain attention due to our works and activities and feedback has been highly positive.

Media

The Update and Investiture was uploaded and appears to have been received well. Nicely concise and fit for purpose, information on St George's Church and Woodbank Hall was also released informing those of the state of affairs.

Gary has been busy with three new fantastic video's and posters which are promoting the Order, if these could be shared please, all videos are now on the Youtube or Tik-Tok channel.

Recruitment Campaign

Following the investiture and release of media can all of us redouble our efforts to recruit, the media release of our activities has caused some interest and it is important to turn that momentum into further activity.

Knight Templar of Scotland

We were delighted to see the efforts of this amazing organisation is being increasingly recognised.

This prestigious award underscores the many hours of blood, sweat and tears of the volunteers which make up this leading charity of Scotland. Sincerest congratulations are given.

Moving Forwards

As we reflect on all that has been achieved recently, it's clear that we are building real momentum as an Order. From our presence in the Manchester Whit Walks to the successful release of our media content, these accomplishments are a testament to the dedication of every member. Let us take this forward with renewed enthusiasm.

Now is the time to channel the energy and attention we have garnered into action. Every conversation, every shared video, and every recruitment effort contributes to the growth and impact of our Order. Together, we can continue spreading our mission and message far and wide.

As we celebrate the recognition of the Knight Templar of Scotland and prepare for exciting upcoming events in Liverpool, Bognor Regis, and Scotland, let us remember that every small effort leads to greater achievements. Whether it's participating in activities, sharing content, or simply engaging with others, all of it is valuable. Every action strengthens our community and brings us closer to our shared purpose.

Let's move forward with optimism, determination, and the certainty that all activity, no matter how small, plays a vital role in lighting the way for the future.

In gratitude, always.

Privy Chamber.
