★ A LEGACY OF STORIES ★

THE VOICES 250 PROJECT

As America celebrates its 250th anniversary, Tri-County Mystery Meets is preserving the stories of the people who call Appalachia home.

Through the Voices 250 Project, our goal is to interview 250 individuals in one year, capturing memories, experiences, traditions, and personal histories that might otherwise be lost. Selected stories are then transformed into original theatrical productions, allowing audiences to see their communities reflected on stage.

★ Senior Senior Wedding ★
is one of those stories.

Inspired in part by interviews conducted through Voices 250, the production celebrates love, resilience, family, and the enduring spirit of Appalachian people.

SUPPORTED BY

FOUNDATION FOR APPALACHIAN KENTUCKY

Tri-County Mystery Meets is honored to have received support from the Foundation for Appalachian Kentucky for the Voices 250 Project.

This award represents the LARGEST GRANT RECEIVED in the history of Tri-County Mystery Meets and makes it possible to preserve local stories, expand community engagement, and bring new Appalachian works to the stage.

Through this support, Voices 250 will continue documenting the people, places, traditions, and experiences that define our region for future generations.

WHY IT MATTERS

Every person has a story.

Every story has value.

And every community deserves to see itself reflected on stage.

THIS SHOW IS DEDICATED TO
DR. C. WILLIAM BRISCOE
PATRON OF TCMM

In 1973, Bill and his beloved wife Marsha came home to her roots in Southeastern Kentucky, where he answered a calling that would shape the next half century of his life. At a time when communities across the country were losing access to mental health care, he set out to build something better here in Corbin. What began as a small inpatient psychiatric unit at the old SEKB Hospital grew, under his steady hand, into the Trillium Center and Briscoe Clinic at Baptist Health Corbin.

For more than fifty years, Dr. Briscoe cared for his patients with the kind of quiet devotion that doesn't make headlines but changes lives. He served as President of the Kentucky Psychiatric Association, spent 24 years on the Kentucky Board of Medical Licensure, including a term as Vice President, and gave 45 years to the Medical Executive Committee at Baptist Health Corbin. In November 2024, his colleagues named him Physician of the Year.

★ FROM INTERVIEW TO STAGE ★

As part of the Voices 250 Project, Gary and Gwyn Motz were interviewed for Backstory Sessions by Catherine "Cat" Rhoden Goguen and Willie Carr.
Their remarkable love story—from courtship and elopement to decades of marriage—inspired portions of the fictional story and scenes experience in Senior Senior Wedding.

While the play is a work of fiction, it celebrates the enduring love and commitment that Gary and Gwyn have shared throughout their lives.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

EDDIE'S PRESENCE IS FELT THROUGHOUT
Senior Senior Wedding.

While audiences will laugh at the antics, mishaps, and adventures of this cast of characters, the story also reminds us of something important:

The people we love never truly leave us.

This production is dedicated to the memories of those who helped shape our lives, whose stories continue to be told, and whose love remains part of every family gathering, every celebration, and every wedding.

EDDIE MAY BE GONE,
BUT HE IS CERTAINLY NOT FORGOTTEN.
