OUR STORY

In 2014 Sheila Rhodes launched Small Batch Kitchen making low sugar fruit spreads using locally sourced produce. After outgrowing the production kitchen on her home property, Sheila set off to find a new location. In 2019 Small Batch Kitchen Cafe & Market opened up in Lansdale with a local gourmet grocery market as well as the Cafe. Small Batch Kitchen has always valued local sourcing of ingredients, particularly produce. Supporting our local farms, orchards, and producers has a tremendous positive impact on our local community.

Our menu changes with the seasons, highlighting the produce available to our growing region.

Gourmet comfort food: our recipes stick to simple ingredients, low sugar, and low sodium.
