San Marcos High School

The Quick Hit:

Despite trailing after a quarter and at the half, Torrey Pines clamped down on defense in the second half to beat San Marcos on the road 57-52. Brandon Angel had 27 points, 23 coming in the final three quarters, and 11 rebounds for another double-double. Diego Campisano played an excellent third quarter to help the Falcons regain the lead, and from there the Falcons never relinquished it.

The Players:

Brandon Angel picked up his 10th double-double on the season with a 27 point, 11 rebound effort. He was 8/13 from two and 8/9 from the foul line. Diego Campisano was the other Falcon in double-digits with 11 points and 7 rebounds to go along with. Chris Howell had another stat sheet-stuffing effort with 7 points, 10 rebounds, 7 assists and 3 steals. Otto Landrum played big minutes off the bench with 6 points and 3 rebounds.

The Game:

San Marcos opened up with four three-pointers in the first quarter that propelled them to a 15-11 lead after one. The Falcons closed the margin by two in the second quarter on the back of nine points from Brandon Angel, but San Marcos still led 27-26 at the break. Seven points from Diego Campisano within the first three minutes of the second half sparked the Falcons to a 34-33 lead and forced a San Marcos timeout. A Nate Witte to Brandon Angel lob for a slam with 40 seconds left in the third punctuated a solid quarter for the Falcons. The score was 45-39 Falcons after three. That score remained through the first 3:05 of the fourth before a Brandon Angel and-1 (from Chris Howell) broke the drought. Neither team was really able to find baskets as the quarter progressed, but San Marcos hit their ninth and tenth three-pointers in the period to make things interesting in the final minutes. Brandon Angel was a big 4/4 from the foul line down the stretch to seal the game and give the Falcons a 57-52 win.
