The Quick Hit:

The Falcons returned to action with a 76-39 win at home over Santana. Santana began the game 4/4 from the field but the Torrey Pines defense tightened up as the game went on. The lead was 26 at halftime and was stretched to 39 at the end of three quarters as Coach Olive rotated the starters out of the game.

The Players:

Brandon Angel led the Falcons yet again in scoring, this time with 27 points and seven rebounds in just under 16 minutes. He was 11/15 from the field, including 3/4 from deep. Two of those dunks were massive ones on the breakaway, and one was in traffic off a Chris Howell outlet. Speaking of Howell, he was 4/5 from the field and added 10 points, six assists and five steals. Diego Campisano had nine points and was also 4/5 from the field. Off the bench, Matias Clotfelter had six points, Cooper Glenn had five points, Dechaun Key had four points and Michael Morse had three. Key also had four rebounds.

The Game:

The Sultans came out firing, scoring four baskets on their first four possessions. The Falcons matched with two straight Brandon Angel three-pointers. Two huge Angel slams, one off a steal on the break and the other off a Chris Howell defensive rebound and outlet, punctuated the quarter. Angel finished the first quarter with 15 points and six rebounds to help Torrey Pines build a 26-8 lead. In the second, an Angel to Howell alley-oop and a Cooper Glenn corner three were the highlights of the quarter as the Falcons added 10 points to their lead to make it 46-18 at half. The Falcons dominated the beginning of the second half before Coach Olive cleared the bench midway through the period. The score stood at 66-27 after three. In the final quarter, baskets were at a premium for both sides. Torrey Pines won the quarter 10-9 and the game 76-39. A special shoutout for the Sultans' Ethan Wolchko, who scored 20 and could shoot it from anywhere on the court.
