About THE VLOG

Launched in 2020, Very Réal is a burgeoning vlog that gives you a realistic look at the daily life of a soon-to-be empty nester and former marketing executive.

Throughout her 25 year professional career, Réal was the mastermind behind the scenes, representing a number of major airlines, sprawling properties and great destinations, fashion companies, beauty products, and professional services.

Now, she is stepping in front of the camera, ditching the corporate speak, and sharing her honest opinions on all the products and services she uses, loves and can't live without.

Follow Réal as she chronicles her everyday life experiences -- whether she is traveling, going on an adventure, focusing on her health, trying the newest fitness craze, exploring her creativity, or just enjoying her home office.

Réal Hamilton- Romeo
