

Maine by the Numbers

Maine is struggling in key areas. These rankings highlight where better policy can make a critical difference. Maine has the potential to lead, not burn.

#1

in percentage of people priced out of homes
(tied with NH)

#1

in home price surges (tied with VT)

source: Visual Capitalist

#47

in income

source: WalletHub

#3

in spending on healthcare

source: WalletHub

#43

in business climate

source: CNBC

#48

in economy

source: WalletHub

#41

in education

source: U.S. News & World Report

#2

in decline of education performance

source: Maine Children's Alliance

#43

in fourth-grade reading proficiency

source: Maine Children's Alliance

#50

in infrastructure

source: CNBC

#1

in the nation for electricity cost increase: 36% in just one year

source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics

$46 million

in improper MaineCare
payments for autism
services

source: Maine Auditor's Office

#11

in top marginal state
individual income tax
rates

source: Tax Foundation