

Lake Travis Padel (LTP) Participation Application Form

Please READ the participant waiver form found on the LTP web site and complete and sign the application below. LTP staff will send you a participation login ID so you may set up your personal password. This will provide members the ability to book courts and programs and access the private facility via a constant changing gate code. You must be over the age of 18 to be a participant and access the facility. All participants under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an existing adult participant of the club. Every participant including spouses must complete a form and sign a waiver.

Thank you for playing padel at LTP. The followings are the terms under which participation of LTP will be given. All participants must follow these rules to maintain access to all padel facilities:

1. Validity of participation is the total discretion of LTP facility.
2. LTP facility can evoke or cancel participation at any time if failure to follow rules given by the facility.
3. All participants have to pay fees for services in valid time.
4. Participants who book a court and do not cancel within 24 hours will be charged the standard court rates. This includes if the courts are provided for free do to any type of promotions.
5. Late payment may be charged with extra fine, loss of participation or legal action against member.
6. LTP facility is authorised to change, modify or amend the rules any time without prior consent of the participants but participants will be communicated with any changes and can always opt out of participating as long as all payments are up to date.
7. For security and protection purposes for our staff and members, LTP has designated video surveillance throughout the property and buildings
8. Participants agree to the terms and conditions of the Lake Travis Padel (LTP), Mont Royal Fitness (338 Evaluators LLC) Participant Waiver that can be downloaded and viewed from the LTP web site.

I have carefully read the participation terms and conditions above along with the participant waiver form and I understand that both are legally binding documents that affects my legal rights and remedies.
