

Open Letter to Merano Cultural Performances U.S.A.

Today, October the 7th, 2020, Deutsche Classical, The Intellectual Property Guardian is Issuing this Open Letter to Merano Cultural Performances U.S.A. in order to serve as the Final 3 Day Warning, before our initiation of the Official Proceedings, regarding the Heavy Breach of Privacy of our own Deutsche Classical Recording Label, and the Severe Copyright Infringement of the “Coat of Arms”- Government Property of Merano, Italy, and Landmark of South Tirol.

Since Year of 2016, Merano Cultural Performances is being using the Theft Legacy and the Government Sign “Coat of Arms”, property of South Tyrol, both for Business and Entertainment Purposes Worldwide, by displaying the Infringed Logo in many different and degraded quality versions for various occasions.

Their Official Website, the YouTube Channel, and Many International TV appearances are just very few of the examples of the illegal acts. Finally, they are promoting another logo, which seems to be original artwork and may be their own property, but that Does NOT void the Fact of Major Privacy Breach Exhibits and Numeral Copyright Infringement Cases.

Deutsche Classical, The Intellectual Property Guardian is now still conducting a Private Investigation, and will supply All of the Case Evidences, Including more than 500 Snapshots of Webpages, and over 400 Video Clips to the Government in Bozen, South Tyrol, if Our Pre-Proceeding Terms and Conditions of Settlement are Not Being Met until the End of the Warning 3 Days/72 Hours Period.

In case of Non-Operational Collaborative Behavior from the side of Merano Cultural Performances, we will follow Our Promises and will Initiate the 2 Lawsuits. In result, the Business name MERANO will be Prohibited by Law to be used in the territory of U.S.A. and Worldwide for Business, Advertising, and Displaying Purposes, together with the other Severe Punishments Enforced.

Sincerely:

Daniel M. Tringov, Founder and CEO
