

Daufuskie Island Visitor Information

The following pages present general information about Daufuskie Island businesses. The information is intended to assist visitors with getting to, getting around, and getting the most out of, Daufuskie Island. Daufuskie is a place like no other, but the features that make it attractive also present challenges to those wishing to visit. There is no bridge to Daufuskie, transportation to and from the island is limited, and the resources on the island are limited, but there is no shortage of natural beauty, tranquility and beautiful sunsets.

In the following pages you will find information on:

- Transportation providers offering ferry and water taxi services to and from the island.
- Vacation rental agencies
- Golf cart and bicycle rental providers
- What to visit and see when you're here
- Beach equipment rental
- Fishing/boating charters and excursions from Daufuskie
- Where to eat - hours and offering of on-island restaurants
- Gift shops and local artisans
- General stores and limited supplies
- Local photographers for special occasions or family photos to memorialize your visit
- A map of the island showing historical sites, restaurants and shops

Locations, contact information and websites are provided (Both Apple Maps and Google Maps provide reliable directions on the island provided cellular service is available. Verizon generally provides the strongest service on most of the island. An island map is provided following the business pages.

Make the Daufuskie Island History Museum your first stop, and pick up a copy of the Rob Kennedy Historical Trail Map, and get a timeline of the island history. When visiting Daufuskie, please respect the privacy of island residents and do not enter the grounds of private residences. Be respectful when visiting cemeteries and church grounds and help to preserve the island's wildlife and natural state by properly disposing of trash and not littering the roadside.

The information provided in this directory is made available to assist in planning for visits to Daufuskie Island and to aid visitors. No endorsement of the establishments listed is implied by inclusion in the directory. No critique is implied by exclusion. Individual business websites and social media often provide best current information, but some businesses may not keep their sites current. Note that not all website/Facebook links are active but we will update as available.