

SATH TO HOLD “25TH ANNUAL CHARITY AUCTION” March 2nd at the Highland County Fairgrounds

SATH (Supplementary Assistance to the Handicapped), a non-profit organization that provides leisure time activities for children with disabilities will be holding a “Charity Auction” on March 2nd, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. in the Wharton Building at the Highland County Fairgrounds in Hillsboro, Ohio. HESS Auction Co., LLC will be assisting SATH with the Auction. All proceeds will be used for children with special needs in Adams, Brown, Clinton, Fayette, Highland and surrounding Counties.

Some of the items include: Cincinnati Reds tickets, Concert tickets, Lots of “31” filled bags, large selection of new toys, baskets filled by local merchants, car wash items, automotive supplies, new tools, bedroom set, spinet piano, Longaberger baskets, medical equipment, used TV’s, miscellaneous used tools, John Deere items, furniture, lots of kitchen and household items, Christmas tree & decorations. and lots of miscellaneous items. We have numerous gift certificates for items such as eye exams, free massages, beauty salons, bowling, oil changes, food and much much more. There will be homemade pies and cakes.

SATH appreciates your past support. We are in need of donations to help us with this fund-raiser. Any items that you would like to contribute to this worthwhile cause would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Linda Allen at (937) 366-6657 to make arrangements to pick up your donation.

We invite the community to come out for the day. The Charity Auction will begin at 10:00 a.m. Caleb Hill Concessions will be serving lunch.