

What Moves You? Physical Therapy, Yoga, & Wellness LLC

PRIVACY POLICY

We provide physical therapy and yoga SERVICES to individual CLIENTS.

Information we collect:

We collect non-public personal and medical information about the CLIENT, in certain cases their family members, from the following sources:

- Information we receive from CLIENTS on intake forms or other required forms in connection with providing above services to the client.
- Information we receive as a result of processing and verifying the information provided to us by the CLIENT.
- Information we receive from affiliates, insurers (if applicable), and third party providers regarding the CLIENT necessary to provide above services.
- Information we receive from external sources (eg publicly available records) as needed to provide above services
- Photographs may be used for identification or marketing purposes

Information we may disclose to third parties:

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our CLIENTS or former CLIENTS to third parties except to process payment for services, or to inform referring physician (if applicable) or other members of the healthcare team (if applicable) for the CLIENT's benefit. We may share this information outside the LLC in order to process the transaction for which the information was provided or as otherwise authorized by the CLIENT.

Our practices regarding information confidentiality and security:

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about CLIENTS to those who need to know that information in order to provide products or services to our CLIENTS. We have in place physical, electronic and procedural safeguards in order to guard any nonpublic personal information we maintain regarding Client and Participants in full compliance with HIPPA regulation. Any contractors providing service in the confines of this practice is also expected to comply completely with this policy.

CLIENT Signature: _____ Date: _____

