Proven Expertise

Marie Bailey, a retired Navy Supply Corps Officer, brings over 35 years of leadership experience in financial management and program oversight across the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD), including the Navy, Army, and Joint operations. Her distinguished career includes serving on the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS), where she led efforts to enhance fiscal accountability, streamline financial processes, and drive innovation across multiple military branches.

With deep expertise in strategic planning, budget guidance, and business process improvement, Marie has a proven track record of optimizing resources and achieving operational efficiency within the Navy, Army, and broader DoD financial structures. She holds a Master of Science in Financial Management from the Naval Postgraduate School and a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from Norfolk State University, making her a trusted advisor in financial decision-making across defense agencies.
