Rosemary M. Lehman and Simone C. O. Conceição

Your Partners in Teaching and Learning

Global Strategic Thinking

We work together to help dissolve teaching and learning boundaries through global strategic thinking.

Intentional Design and Curriculum Development

We assist others to intentionally design learning environments that interface between the eWorld and the real world. We collaborate with others to plan, implement, and evaluate curriculum in multiple disciplines and diverse settings.

Instructor Training

We help instructors prioritize, organize, manage, and balance their teaching experiences through coaching and mentoring.

Research Implementation

We facilitate creative thinking, exploration, and critical inquiry to generate innovation, change, and action in our complex world.
