HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

The Headrick Family Paper was started by Sam Headrick on September 9, 2018. Today we are celebrating our 6-year anniversary with the biggest news since 2023.

THE HEADRICK FAMILY PAPER

HIS AN ORE DIGGER NOW

JP has set off to Colorado School of Mines to pursue his professional Lego building degree. JP has joined a fraternity and has left all of his dude energy back on Mercer Island.

IN ONLY 4 YEARS?

This past June, Jake graduated from Dartmouth College. Two days after graduation he set off for his training at Piper Sandler, just as dad did a few decades ago. Mom and Annie offered to drive his car back to the PNW, not aware of the vomit stench they would need to endure.

WHERE IS SHE NOW?

Surprisingly, Annie finds herself back on Fordham's campus and not galavanting around Europe. Over the summer, she traveled to Ireland for a dig and uncovered an impressive rock. Annie is currently working on her grad school application!

THE NEW ALPHA?

Sam just started his senior year in high school! As a result of the new phone policy, detention room, broken wifi, and crackhead teachers, Sam is ready to be done.

BOB THE BUILDERS

This year, our very own Mom and Dad got to work building a zen garden for the RV. For the first time, this project did not include a team of black people loading gear into Dad's truck.

SHE DOESN'T REALLY FLOAT & NEITHER DOES THE KEY

This past summer, the MasterCraft had some issues keeping the water outside the boat. Another obstacle was added when JP decided to show some Renton girls how to drop the key in the lake!

Our 2024 Season is here! Once again, we all took away from our busy schedules to spend 15 minutes on our Fantasy Draft. This time Sam only managed to pick one kicker and Mom has no active felons, rapists, or domestic abusers!
