McClancy downs Molloy
By SEAN BRENNAN
Daily News Sports Writer

Last Saturday, All Hallows fell victim to McClancy's Crusaders. Last night, it was Molloy's turn. If these early signs are any indication, things could get very interesting this season for Don Kent's bunch.

"This was a very big win for us," said Kent, McClancy's head man. "It's important that we get off to a good start."

They have. With last night's 67-52 victory over Molloy, the Crusaders are 4-0 and 1-0 in league play.

Brendan McDonagh led the way with 29 points, with Jamal Robinson finishing with 17, including seven clutch free throws in the final quarter to ice the game.

McClancy led throughout, with a 31-17 bulge at the half and a 52-43 advantage after three quarters. Molloy managed to close within seven points with a little over two minutes left, but could get no closer as McClancy's defense, led by Latroy Tabbs, put the clamps on the Stanners.

Ford 85, Regis 59 — The Falcons got 20 points apiece from Robert Blackwell and Winston Gordon to cruise in this non-league contest. Charles Jones added 12 points and 11 assists in the victory. Regis was led by Jason Franzke's 17.

Loughlin 60, Hayes 47 — Danny Manning and Kevin Bryant scored 10 points each for the Lions (4-1). Lamarr Coleman paced the Cardinals with 13.

Spellman 57, St. John's Prep 52 (OT) — Mario Bour-deau was a perfect 4-for-4 from the foul line in OT to clinch the win for the Pilots (1-0). Prep's Jack Mitchell hit a shot at the end of regulation to tie the game at 50. Fitzroy Thorpe paced the Pilots with 14 points.

All Hallows 65, St. Anthony (L.I.) 48 — The Gaels (3-1) got 21 points from Hance Purter and 14 from Tarik Thacker to turn away St. Anthony's. David Charles added 12 points in the winning cause. Tom McGoldrick led St. Anthony's with 25 points.

Fieldston 76, Scanlan 51 — Felix Plata led all scorers with 24 points, while Jake Sussman added 21 for Fieldston. Shawn Simmons led Scanlan with 19.

In PSAL action:
Lincoln 87, Madison 65 — The Railsplitters, PSAL champions, began their defense in fine fashion as Darrel Flicking pumped in 26 points and Seton Hall-bound Tchaka Shipp added 19 and a game-high 20 rebounds. Cory Johnson contributed 18 points, while frosh Stephen Marbury scored 10 and handed out 12 assists.

Springfield Gardens 70, Van Buren 59 — The Golden Eagles were led by Hot Rod Lewis' 23 points and Bernard Ware's 21 and 12 rebounds. Bryan Holmes added 14 for SG (3-0). Rob Leary led Van Buren with 18 points.

Hillcrest 84, Francis Lewis 38 — Pat Duma and Tracey Burton scored 15 apiece and Craig Dixon scored 13 with 12 assists and eight rebounds as Hillcrest won its league opener.

Cardozo 83, Bayside 33 — Rafer Alston (25 points) and David Duke (23) led the onslaught. Lary Hardy chipped in with 17 points and five blocks in Cardozo's league-opener.

Hale 88, Prospect Hts. 80 — Bryan McCoy netted 39 points, giving him 1,000 for his career, and Felix Zapata scored 22 to give Hale the upset at the Heights. Dwayne Louison scored 11 points and grabbed 10 boards for Hale (1-0), which finished 2-10 last season in their first year in A ball.

"It's important that we get off to a good ETUODO inn JUL do GdoDud to ft By KAREN HUNTER-HODGE Daily News Sports Writer August Martin opened its PSAL league season last night with an 80-5 destruction of Richmond Hill.

It is not a score Joel Ascher is proud of, nor is it one he feels is beneficial to his team's progress. "No disrespect to Richmond Hill," Ascher said. "But beating a team 80-5 does not help us improve as a team. In fact, it hurts us. They should have some sort of Division for the girls to make it fair." After losing Michelle Reed, perhaps the best player in the city last season, the Angels were left with a squad of talented but inexperienced players. For the first time in eight years they are not even favored to make the city finals.

"But I think we will surprise some people," Ascher said. "We have a lot of young players. By the playoffs everything should be coming together for them." The Angels definitely have start! They have. With last night's 67-52 victory over Molloy, the Crusaders are 4-0 and 1-0 in league play.

Brendan McDonagh led the way with 29 points, with Ja-mal Robinson finishing with 17, including seven clutch free throws in the final quarter to ice the game. McClancy led throughout, with a 31-17 bulge at the half and a 52-43 advantage after (BSM talent. Yesterday they had four players in double figures Dionne Williams (12), soph Marsha Harris (10) and Nicole Brown (10). The Angels have put together one of the most grueling schedules in the city. Last week they faced perniennial powerhouse Shenendehowa from upstate and lost, 78-50.

And this weekend the Angels travel to Philadelphia for a pre-Christmas tournament featuring Philly's Gratz, which sports 6-5 Danique Graves, one of the best players in the country. "We have to play this caliber of team to get better," said Ascher, whose team has won seven of the last nine city titles. "I think it will pay off come playoff time." John Jay 73, Tilden 32 -Pietra Gay led four in double figures with 20. Fatimah Wooden (16), Jessica Cabrera (12) and Erica Houser (11) also scored for JJ (5-0, 3-0), which led, 23-8, after one. Robeson 44, Boys Girls 19 Kendra Nelson, who broke three quarters.
