Never write down or give credit-card information over the phone.

ABOUT AUTOMATIC CALCULATIONS

The PDF contains genuine editable fields, single-choice package and payment selections, and checkboxes. Its automatic totals use embedded Acrobat JavaScript, supported by Adobe Acrobat Reader and compatible desktop PDF viewers. Many mobile or browser PDF viewers disable PDF JavaScript: for reliable calculations on any phone, use the companion browser order form. The listed three-payment advertising on the original artwork includes two arithmetic mismatches; the interactive calculation splits the complete order into exact cents.
