INTRODUCTION

1. About State Awards

The Ohio Association for Spiritual, Ethical, and Religious Values in Counseling (OASERVIC) worked to launch their annual awards program in 2020 to provide recognition and to distinguish Ohio professional counselors for superb ethical and professional practices. OASERVIC Awards recipients will be recognized at the annual OASERVIC spring workshop and be featured on OASERVIC's website. The decisions for the award recipients are based on the criteria and requirements outlined in this packet. The chairs of the OASERVIC Ethics Committee will notify award recipients by March 27th, 2021.

All nominations must be emailed to the ohioaservic@gmail.com by March 20th, 2021 to be considered for each respective award. Please ensure each required document is fully completed and attached to a single email. Nominations cannot be received via fax. Please scan items and include them as an attachment as needed.

Award Nomination Checklist:

- Nominee is an OASERVIC member
- Nominee is an OCA member
- Nomination letter thoroughly addresses criteria for the award
- The following supporting documents are attached:
 - The nominee's current vitae/résumé
 - Two letters of nomination/support demonstrating award criteria outlined in this packet

2. About Professional Recognition of Ethical Practice (PREP) Program

In addition to awards, the OASERVIC awards committee developed a certificate of competency in hopes to recognize practitioners for their best ethical practices and do not meet the requirements to qualify to become an emerging leader. OASERVIC PREP certificate recipients will receive a certificate of competency for the year they apply, be recognized at the annual OASERVIC spring workshop, and be featured on OASERVIC's website. The decisions for the certificate recipients are based on the criteria and requirements outlined in this packet. The chairs of the OASERVIC Ethics & Values committee will notify award recipients on the 15th of the month after the close of the quarterly cycle.

All nominations must be emailed to the ohioaservic@gmail.com by or before the close of the quarterly cycle January 1st/ April 1st/ July 1st/ October 1st of each year to be considered for the certificate. Please ensure each document required is fully completed and attached to a single email. Nominations cannot be received via fax. Please scan items and include them as an attachment as needed.

The PREP CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY PROGRAM

The OASERVIC Professional Recognition of Ethics in Practice (PREP) program was designed to provide Ohio counselors, educators, and students diverse opportunities to actively promote the ethical codes of the profession in a pragmatic way, demonstrate a standard of knowledge, promote application of the profession's competencies, and show dedication to professional excellence in their clinical work and behaviors. The PREP certificate serves to identify professionals who have voluntarily sought to demonstrate a passion for aligning their practices with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014) and relevant competencies. Certificates will be provided for the given year cycle based upon the PREP checklist delineating a list of criteria developed by the OASERVIC board that promotes both the ethical codes and competent professional practice behaviors. The certificate promotes the following mission:

- Promote professional accountability, visibility, and helps recognize best ethical practice of counselors across the state
- Identifies to the public and professional peers those professionals who have met specific recognized standards outlined by the certificate
- Increase marketability of quality services for Ohio clients and Ohio's behavioral health system
- Encourages the continuing professional growth and development of individuals

Recipients must be both an OCA and OASERVIC member at the time of application. PREP awardees will receive a certificate of completion indicating commitment to professional excellence, be recognized at OASERVIC's awards ceremony held at OASERVIC's annual workshop, and be featured on OASERVIC's website. OASERVIC seeks applicants who have exhibited exceptional practice in the state of Ohio and that hold a willingness to serve Ohio's diverse populations with professional excellence. Interested applicants should review the PREP checklist to identify if they meet PREP requirements, then submit the following to the Ethics & Values Committee Chair, at ohioaservic@gmail.com before the end of each quarterly grant cycle occurring during the months of January 1st/ April 1st/ July 1st/ October 1st of each year.

1. The OASERVIC PREP program application and essay
2. Your curriculum current vitae/résumé
3. Two letters of recommendation describing your professional knowledge and skills as it relates to ethical advocacy, practice experiences, and/or reasons why you should be selected for a PREP certificate

Applicants will be notified of their application status by the 15th of the month after the close of the most recent cycle.
