

At the Table

Week of February 1, 2026

A Newsletter from
St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Kernersville, NC

Still Snowy!

We miss everyone, but we are glad to have seen so many faces online yesterday! We are hoping to see everyone soon (maybe this week, if the weather cooperates). As of Monday morning, most of the roads are pretty messy, so be safe, and if you need anything, reach out!

Email Deacon Rick

This Week at St. Matthew's (weather permitting)

Wednesday

Holy Communion
5:45 pm (15
minutes later this week)
Knit Wits,
6:15 pm

Thursday

Game Night
6-9 pm

Sunday

Holy Communion
9 am
Parish Meeting
(after the service)

Coming up at St. Matt's

- Our Parish Meeting will take place on Sunday, Feb. 8 after the service. We will vote on our new vestry, and discuss the hopes and dreams for our community, and other parish concerns.
- Our study of the Book of Acts will continue in a couple weeks, on Feb. 15. We just got started, so anyone interested in joining is welcome. The study is after coffee hour on Sundays.
- Interested in starting a book club? Reach out to Mike Smith or Rick Sigler.

Email Deacon Rick

Join the Diocese on Circle!

If you'd like to connect with other Episcopalians across the Diocese of North Carolina, you can meet them on Circle. Circle is a social media platform where you can learn about other parishes and their work, meet other Episcopalians, or just share in beloved community in a joyful, loving way.

Click here to learn more!

1110 Salisbury St.,
Kernersville, NC 27284
(336) 996-4422

