

At the Table

Week of January 25, 2026

A Newsletter from
St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Kernersville, NC

Snow and Ice in Kernersville!

We missed seeing everyone yesterday, and hope everyone is able to stay warm. We will make a decision on events this week as the snow melts and life begins to get back to normal. Reach out to Rick if you are in need of anything.

Email Deacon Rick

This Week at St. Matthew's

Wednesday

Holy Communion

5:30 pm

Knit Wits,

6:15 pm

Thursday

Game Night

6-9 pm

Sunday

Holy Communion

9 am

Parish Meeting
(after the service)

Coming up at St. Matt's

- Our Parish Meeting will take place on Sunday, Feb. 1 after the service. We will vote on our new vestry, and discuss the hopes and dreams for our community, and other parish concerns.
- Our study of the Book of Acts will continue in a couple weeks, on Feb. 8. We just got started, so anyone interested in joining is welcome. The study is after coffee hour on Sundays.
- Interested in starting a book club? Reach out to Mike Smith or Rick Sigler.

Email Deacon Rick

Lenten Season will begin soon!

As we progress towards Lent, we will, individually and as a community, explore and reflect on new ways to connect with God. Along with Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday, we will incorporate a devotional readings and other activities. If you have ideas or would like to participate, feel free to reach out!

1110 Salisbury St.,
Kernersville, NC 27284
(336) 996-4422

