A Great Cloud of Witnesses

The Ordination of the Philadelphia Eleven

The Philadelphia Eleven are the eleven women who were the first women ordained as priests in the Episcopal Church on July 29, 1974. Their unauthorized ordination at the Church of the Advocate in Philadelphia challenged church law and paved the way for full gender equality in church leadership.
