FROM THE DOG HOUSE

THEN THERE WERE TWO: The Charleston RiverDogs have returned to the League Championship Series for the four time since joining the Rays organization six years ago, and the first time since they swept the Down East Bird Dawgs in two games. This matchup marks the first postseason meeting between Fayetteville and Charleston. In the regular season, Charleston took the season series 10-2. Tonight marks their first meeting since May 3.

JACKSON SETS THE TONE: Right-hander Luke Jackson will take the ball for Charleston in game one of the Championship Series. Across 12 apperances and eight starts since returning from the injured list, Jackson has allowed just seven earned runs over 23 innings of work (2.74 ERA). In the process, he has fanned 27 and walked just five. Over two innings last Tuesday in Game One at Hickory, he tossed two scoreless frames, allowed one hit, and fanned three hitters. His total of 31.1 innings this year mark more than any he threw in his college career. He features a fastball that sits between 94-97 miles per hour, slider and kick changeup. Hickory. He has made one start against Fayetteville this year, delivering three innings of two-run ball on April 11.

RIVERDOGS RALLY TO ADVANCE: The Charleston RiverDogs punched their ticket to the championship round with a gritty 7-6 victory over the Hickory Crawdads on Friday night. Each game of the series was decided by one run. Hickory struck first in the top of the third on a Paulino Santana sacrifice fly to center before a one-hour, 43-minute weather delay. Out of the delay, Charleston loaded the bases on three walks before Cooper Flemming launched a grand slam to center to put the RiverDogs ahead 4-1. Hickory answered with two runs in the fourth and tied the game in the fifth on a Deward Tovar RBI double to left, but Charleston responded with three runs in the bottom half of the inning on a bases-loaded walk by Andreimi Antunez and a Hickory error to regain a 7-4 advantage. The Crawdads chipped away with a run in the sixth and another in the ninth, but Yereny Teus slammed the door to secure the one-run victory and send Charleston to the championship round. Riley Stanford turned in a spectacular relief outing, tossing three innings of one-run, unearned ball while striking out five.

GAME ONE THRILLER: Charleston took a 1-0 series lead in the Carolina League South Division Series with a thrilling 9-8, 10-inning victory over Hickory on Tuesday night at LP Frans Stadium. The RiverDogs erupted for 16 hits, their second-most in a postseason game in the last 21 years, with Slater de Brun leading the way at 4-for-5 with three RBI. He joined Junior Caminero and Xavier Issac as the only other RiverDogs to notch four hits and drive in 3+ in a postseason game since at least 2005. Charleston jumped out to a 5-0 lead before Hickory rallied to tie the game and eventually take a 7-6 advantage in the seventh. Tom Poole's solo home run in the ninth tied the game, and de Brun delivered the go-ahead RBI single in the 10th before Taitn Gray added a sacrifice fly for a 9-7 lead. Hickory pulled within one in the bottom half, but Efrailin Ramos struck out Josh Springer to secure the win. It also marked the franchise's first postseason victory (since at least 2005) when trailing in the ninth inning or later. Charleston now needs one more win to advance to the Carolina League Championship Round.

THREE OF A KIND: Rays No. 5, 6 and 30 prospects Cooper Flemming, Taitn Gray and Dean Moss have been among Charleston's hottest hitters over the past two months. Since Gray returned from his rehab assignment on July 29, the trio has combined to produce impressive numbers at the plate, with Gray batting .311/.361/.443 with two home runs, 22 RBI and nine stolen bases in 12 attempts, Flemming hitting .309/.360/.463 with three home runs, 25 RBI and 12 extra-base hits, and Moss posting a .325/.384/.404 slash line with one home run, 16 RBI and 10 stolen bases in 15 attempts. The three have been particularly productive in key situations, combining to hit .391/.427/.548 with runners in scoring position, going 45-for-115 with 59 RBI.

FRESH FACES: This series marks the first meeting between the two clubs since May, when Charleston took five of six from Fayetteville. six RiverDogs position players remain from those matchups: Cooper Flemming, Taitn Gray, Brody Donay, Yirer Garica, Dean Moss, and Alberth Palma, along with ten pitchers. Hickory returns five position players who faced Charleston earlier this season, including the Astros' No. 1 ranked propsect, Kevin Alvarez, who is also touted as baseball's No. 80 prospect. Over 99 games, he slashed .261/.343/.429, overall.

FLAIR FOR THE DRAMATIC: Charleston has made a habit of saving its best for last, recording 14 walk-off victories this season, the most in a single season by the club since at least 2005 and the most across any level of professional baseball, including the Majors. The RiverDogs delivered three consecutive walk-off wins two weekends ago, with Alberth Palma opening the stretch with a walk-off single in the 10th inning Thursday to secure an 8-7 victory, Taitn Gray following with a pinch-hit walk-off double in the ninth Friday, and Angel Mateo providing the final swing Sunday. Charleston's 14 walk-off victories account for 38 percent of its 37 home wins. The RiverDogs have also shown a knack for late comebacks, finishing tied for third across Single-A with 14 victories when trailing after the seventh inning or later, while their eight wins when trailing in the ninth inning or later are the most in Single-A and tied for the most at any level of Minor League Baseball.
