

Captain Ron is a Dynamic professional with 4 decades of experience as a commercial fisherman in Alaska, honing his leadership skills and resilience in one of the world's most dangerous and demanding environments and having Captained over 20 ships, mastering the challenges of the Sea and the Intricacies of maritime Navigation.

My extensive career on the water has endowed me with a deep understanding of Marine Operations, crew Management, and sustainable fishing practices.

Alongside my seafaring career, I have dedicated 30 years to coaching wrestling. My commitment to the sport has been recognized with a silver certificate from the US Olympic program, reflecting my success in developing athletes and promoting excellence in life.

Innovation and engineering are passions of mine, evidenced by holding two US Patents. These patents are a testament to my inventive mindset and ability to create solutions that address real-world problems.

In addition to my professional pursuits, I have a keen interest in automotive engineering. I have built my own car from the ground up, a project that highlights my mechanical skills and dedication to craftsmanship.

My love for motorsports extends to participating in drag racing and being active in off-road Jeep adventures where I enjoy the camaraderie and the thrill of teamwork on the trail.

Transitioning to a new chapter, Ron now applies his diverse skills and dedication to Real Estate in Arizona. As a Real Estate Agent, he finds great joy in assisting first-time home buyers and sellers, guiding them through the complex process with patience and enthusiasm. Ron's unique blend of experience and his genuine passion for helping others make him a trusted and valued advisor in the real estate market.

“ I Ron Horton, coach all ages to be able to help them live life with purpose by stimulating thoughts of empathy and to inspire and motivate them in the pursuit of life skills.
