Introduction:

Solidarity has been a noticeable characteristic of the Puerto Rican people, and worldwide citizens, to help solve issues in their communities provoked by Hurricane Maria. Therefore, one of our objectives is to follow up on that task in order to make sure people keeps on working towards the self-sustainability of their neighborhoods. TPMG is recruiting volunteers to help survivors that still deal with the issues provoked by the hurricane. If you are willing to join us, please let us know about your skills and your available time to participate (you can choose more than one and add any other you consider will be helpful for the project).
