

HELPING HAND MINISTRY

HOME
LIGHTHOUSE
COMMUNITY CHURCH

THRIFTING THURSDAYS

Guidelines & Rules

≡ Welcome! ≡

Helping Hand Ministry is here to serve our community with love and care. All items provided are FREE thanks to generous donations. Please follow these guidelines so we can continue to bless many families each week.

≡ GENERAL GUIDELINES ≡

- 1 All Items Are FREE
Please only take what your family truly needs so we can serve multiple families each week.

- 2 Weekly Clothing Limit
Each family may receive up to 5 outfits per family member, per week.

- 3 Check-Out Required
All families must be checked out by a Helping Hand team member before leaving. Our team will help review and bag your items.

- 4 Donation & Liability Disclaimer
All items are donated and gently used. By accepting items, you acknowledge:
- Items are received at your own risk
 - The Church and Helping Hand Ministry are not responsible for defects, damage, misuse, allergic reactions, or injury
 - No guarantees or warranties are expressed or implied on donated goods

- 5 Respect the Facility
- No one is allowed on the stage
 - Remain in designated rummage areas only
 - Follow directions from volunteers at all times

- 6 Be Courteous & Kind
- Treat volunteers and other families with respect
 - No pushing, arguing, or hoarding items
 - One turn per family in crowded areas

- 7 Children Safety
Children must remain with a parent/guardian at all times. No running or climbing on tables, racks, or equipment.

- 8 No Reselling
Items are provided to bless families in need and are not to be resold.

- 9 Supplies & Limits
Items are available while supplies last. The ministry may limit quantities to serve more families.

- 10 Help Keep It Clean
Please return unwanted items to their proper place and help keep the area neat.

OUR HEART

Helping Hand Ministry exists to serve with love, dignity, and compassion.
Thank you for honoring these guidelines so we can continue to bless our community.

"Freely ye have received, freely give." – Matthew 10:8