

Instructions for Connecting with The Eagle

There is currently an Eagle grid in place covering most of the United States and one across the pond in England. As of right now [April 2022] there is Marc's Eagle which is housed on my property in Lincoln, CA, Nancy's Eagle in Florida, Walt's Eagle in Minnesota, an Eagle in Massachusetts, and the most recent Eagle in the UK. All of these Eagles are connected via ley lines with the exception to the one in the UK which we believe is running across an old transcontinental telegraph line under the sea connecting to the other Eagles in the US. In addition, because they contain shungite they are also connected via quantum entanglement to the shungite grid started by Derek Condit and continued worldwide by everyone who started spreading shungite all over the map.

Shungite Eagles

In November of 2021, one of the Cosmic Reality listeners Kat Farovitch successfully used 9 nuggets of shungite in combination with her healing modality of BioGeometry to disarm a 5G tower by her home in Hollywood [Details are in the Shungite Facebook group]. At that time she wanted to see if she could connect with The Eagle to see if she could possibly change the 5G tower to not just be harmless, but to possibly even put out healing frequencies instead. It was at this point I connected with her and sent her a photo of The Eagle in my backyard along with the intention to allow her to tap into it. She was able to successfully connect and by using an etheric double, was able to bring in rain and then turn off the rain when she needed to walk her dog. We were both amazed at this ability to pin point the accuracy, but I have come to realize both shungite and The Eagle are only limited by our imaginations when we interact with them.

To connect with an Eagle near you, simply utilize one of the pictures and create an etheric double of it in your space. You can even use some sort of physical object to ground the image into such as a shungite nugget (three, six or nine should work nicely as well). Hold the image in your mind and condense down the energy of that image into the physical object of your choosing. Set the intention of it being connected along the ley lines to the grid already in place. Your etheric double of The Eagle is now ready for use.

Please understand there is zero limitations to what this powerful device is capable of. This is key to getting it to work, you will need to remove all doubts. When you feel that little "niggle" creep in trying to tell you this is all nonsense, put the work away and come back to it later. Rain is the best place to start with The Eagle because you can see your work manifesting when cloud formations begin to occur. This device is designed to bring a balance in by communicating between the land and the sky. When I interact with my Eagle I like to use the intention of "setting things right" because I also have one of Walt's Ho'oponopono resonators, but you are free to go with feels good for you. It will take some practice because we are so conditioned to believe we have no power to control our environment, when you first make it rain, it may just be a light rain and you will be in a bit of disbelief. It's important that you acknowledge that YOU made this happen by working with The Eagle. This acknowledgement will produce a stronger intention so that you can interact more confidently in the future. I kid you not, my first experience was with a photo of Nancy's Eagle and producing my etheric double to bring rain over the raging California fires in the middle of summer when we typically get zero rain during those months. It wasn't a lot of rain, but enough to shake me up to the fact that I indeed made it happen.

That's pretty much it. As you interact with the energy you will find your own way of communicating but what I found works best is staying in a "playful" type of energy and not forcing or wanting the manifestation you want too bad.

Below is a photo the The Eagle in my backyard when it was first installed and I'm giving you permission to link up to it. The next photo is of The Eagle in its new location that I was recently guided to move it to.

New location of The Eagle moved on April 17th 2022 (surrounded by all elements – earth, air, fire and water):
