Chapter Director's Report —Justen Elliott

Hello Central Vermont HOG

I'm sure by this time many of you have scratched that itch and, taken your first ride of the season. For others and me, that will probably happen in the upcoming week. "Rides and Events" there are so many things happening, I could write about it for the next 20 pages. Here are a few suggestions where to find information on these rides. Hog.com, this newsletter, our Facebook page, our website, our sponsor Wilkins HD.

On a local level, May 3rd we will be having a yard sale at Wilkins from 10am—2pm. Bring your own table to display your Harley merchandise. (Hoping for no rain!!)

May 10th Uncle Tony will lead us on a Chapter ride to the Abbey, Tony took us here last year and the food was amazing.

To make it fair, and give everyone time to prepare, I must mention a couple of upcoming rides.

July 13th I will be leading a Director's Mystery Ride, with a twist. Pick a destination you would like to go to, no more than 150 miles from Wilkins. Put your answer with your name on it in a sealed envelope and get it to me no later than our July 8th Chapter meeting. At home that night I will pull an envelope out of the submissions, the person who's ride is picked will win a gift card but must show up for the ride on the 13th to receive it. Only I will know the destination until the morning of the ride.

August 10th Boxer Ride. No this is not an MMA event. Wear your most outrageous Boxer shorts 'on the outside of your riding gear' Make it hilarious—the more wild, crazy, funny, the better—we will be in public so keep it tasteful please. Our lunch stop for this ride will be Patick's in Gilford, NH. There will be judges at three locations along the way, with $15 gift cards given out to the winner. If your boxers really stand out from the crowd, you could win all three gift cards.

Tuesday May 13th is our next chapter meeting, Mark and Ronni will share with us their adventure on Route 66 I hope to see you there.

Saddle Up Let's Ride

A Bit of H-D History

Ray Weishaar was a motorcycle racer who rode for Harley Davidson in the 1910s and the 1920s. In his early days, he was dubbed as the “Kansas Cyclone” for his racing on Kansas county fair circuits. He won numerous state and national circuit motorcycle races.

By 1916, Weishaar was part of the Harley Davidson factory team. He won several championships along the way. The most notable of them was of course – The Cornfield Classic Road Race in 1920. Not only did Weishaar win the race, he also lowered the race record by nearly 18 minutes!

For the race, the motorcycle riders would arrive days in advance for practice. On one such practice day, Weishaar brought a piglet to the race track. The piglet became a regular member and was named Johnny.

And when he won the Cornfield Classic of 1920 in Marion, Indiana, he took the small pig for a victory lap. Soon the entire Harley team followed suit and took the small pig for their victory laps.

This was the start of the famous Hog. In no time, the piglet Johnny became famous. The photograph of Weishaar holding the piglet Johnny was all over the papers. The piglet was a part of the Weishaar team (called the wrecking crew) victories. People took a liking to the small pig. Harley Davidson took a liking. (It's not sure which was the first.) But people associated the piglet with the Harley Davidson racing team, and Harley Davidson wrecking crew took the piglet as their mascot.

As a result, Ray Weishaar and his team – the Harley Davidson Wrecking Crew – were called hogs.

6. Aggressive behavior towards others, including verbal and/or physical abuse will not be tolerated.

Breaches of the Code of Conduct
