4. Saturday 7th June – Tubby Toms Freestyle Barbecue Championships

- 4.1. Contest will be a “freestyle” contest, within the bounds of these specific contest rules and those of a CompBBQUK Champion Series contest.
- 4.2. Freestyle means that teams are free to turn in entries for each round in a style and cooking technique of their choosing as long as it conforms to the requirements laid out in these rules, for each round, entry and the Champion Series requirements. They are also free to use any ingredients they wish within the cooking process or entry as long as the entry conforms to any requirements around use of, or absence of specific ingredients or type of ingredient.

4.3. General Rules

- 4.3.1. Limited pre-preparation on site or off site is permitted outside of contest timeframes. For example, mixing of spice blends, however no element of entries may be pre-cooked or pre-assembled. If you are unsure, please contact us to ask.
- 4.3.2. All cooking must take place on barbecues / smokers that derive their heat source from burning solid natural fuels (charcoal, wood, or pellets). Using items such as induction hot plates or gas camping stoves is permitted for limited purposes such as heating sauces.
- 4.3.3. All cooking must take place at the location of the contest, within allotted timeframes of the contest and in accordance with the rules and regulations of each contest.
- 4.3.4. Cooks and teams must ensure that all preparation and cooking is done in hygienic and sanitary conditions.
- 4.3.5. Teams can consist of 1 – 5 named individuals with one team member designated the head cook who is considered responsible for the team during the event.
- 4.3.6. Teams are not permitted to share the use of barbecues, smokers, or team areas during the contests.
- 4.3.7. Each team will be permitted a single entry per round.
- 4.3.8. Teams are responsible for providing or sourcing all their own equipment and ingredients for entries. CompBBQ UK or the event will not be providing equipment or ingredients unless previously agreed.
- 4.3.9. All teams must have a suitable fire extinguisher and fire blanket easily accessible in their team area.
- 4.3.10. All hot ash and embers must be disposed of in the designated bins provided.
- 4.3.11. All recycling and refuse must be disposed of in the provided locations or taken off site.
- 4.3.12. Every care must be taken not to damage the ground or environment of the contest location. You must leave your team, contest area and event location as you found it.
- 4.3.13. During quiet time all competitors, judges and all those involved with the contest must keep all noise to an absolute minimum. This should be judged as no noise that is audible outside of your team area or camping area.
- 4.3.14. Quiet time will be from 21:00 to 07:00 from Friday 6th June to Monday 9th June. The contest is on the grounds of a working farm and business which includes a camping and caravanning site which will contain visitors not associated with the contest or event.

4.4. Round Rules

- 4.4.1. All entries will be judged as per the CompBBQ UK Champions Series scoring mechanism, rules and scoring process which in summary consists of a score between 0-9 in four categories which are, visual appeal, flavour, mouth feel and creativity.
- 4.4.2. Teams will be given an individual 10-minute window within the overall 30-minute window to turn their entries in at the turn in table.
- 4.4.3. The contest clock situated on the turn in table will be the only official time for the contest.
- 4.4.4. Turn ins cannot be submitted early and must be at the turn in table (or in the queue for the turn in table) by the end of the 10-minute window. 1 second late is a disqualification.

- 4.4.5. If an entry requires anything other than a disposable knife and fork, such as a spoon or straw to enable a judge to sample it, that must be provided as part of the turn in.
- 4.4.6. If an entry requires portioning to be judged, any required utensils such as knives or serving spoons must be included as part of the turn in.
- 4.4.7. Entry (unless otherwise stated in the round outline) must be submitted on a single serving platter or board and must be carried by a single person when turning in. The platter or board must not be greater than 65cm x 65cm.
- 4.4.8. Entries can consist of six identical portions OR single items that can be portioned into six identical servings, unless otherwise specified in the round outline.
