

HIGHLY VENOMOUS SNAKES of ESWATINI

Eswatini has seven snake species that are considered
HIGHLY VENOMOUS
and a danger to human life

© Tyrone J. Ping

PUFF ADDER

(Libululu)

POLYVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Miguel da Fonseca

BLACK MAMBA

(Imamba)

POLYVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Richard C. Boycott

RINKHALS

(Phemphetfwane or Phempetfwane)

POLYVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Richard C. Boycott

SNOUTED COBRA

(Phemphetfwane or Phempetfwane)

POLYVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Tyrone J. Ping

MOZAMBIQUE SPITTING

COBRA

(Imfeti)

POLYVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Tyrone J. Ping

BOOMSLANG - Male

(Indlondlo)

MONOVALENT ANTIVENOM

© Tyrone J. Ping

BOOMSLANG - Female

(Indlondlo)

MONOVALENT ANTIVENOM

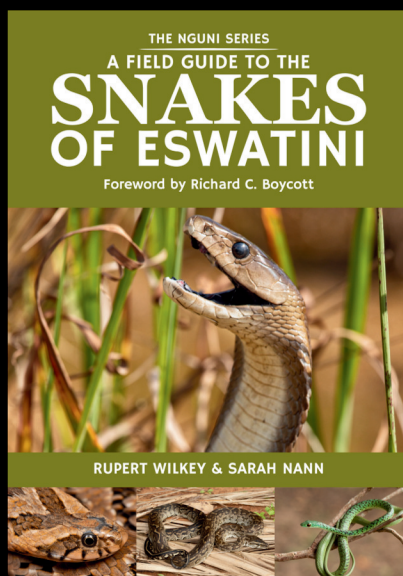

© Richard C. Boycott

SOUTHERN TWIG SNAKE

(Lununkhu or Linunku)

NO AVAILABLE ANTIVENOM

Rupert Wilkey and Sarah Nann are the authors of A Field Guide to the Snakes of Eswatini. This book is the first of its kind to specifically describe all the snake species found in Eswatini.

IN THE EVENT OF SNAKESBITE FROM ANY OF THE ABOVE SPECIES

- Reassure the victim
- Keep them calm
- Get them to a hospital ASAP

www.southernafricanherpetologists.com

